

The Four Preps

"The New Four Preps, featuring the original lead singers of The Association, The Four Preps and The Diamonds, are collectively responsible for more Top Ten recordings than any other group performing today."

Today's New Four Prep's feature the Original lead singers from three of the music world's most successful recording groups...The Associations, The Four Preps and The Diamonds. Together they represent accumulated record sales in excess of 100 million including 29 hit singles, 15 gold albums, 13 Grammy, Emmy and golden Globe Nominations and the Presidential Medal of the Arts.

The four performers who comprise the New Four Preps embody what The Washington Post has called "a walking encyclopedia of classic American Pop." And yet these four unique artists have chosen not to rest on their past musical laurels - as impressive as they may be. Instead, they continue to explore new musical challenges with a commitment to excellence that prompted Charles Einstein, Entertainment Editor of the Newark Star Ledger, to write:
